General Notes: Ida County paper, Pioneer August 22, 1895

A sad and untimely end of life full of promise was that occasioned by the death of Charles Huston, an Ida Grove boy who was called to his long rest while among strangers, far from home and relatives of any near friends. The young man had lived in this city with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huston, since infancy, until about 18 months ago when he went to Missouli, Montana, where he soon secured the position of manager of a large lumber manufacturing concern. About six weeks before his death, the parents received a letter from him stating that he had been ill but was feeling much better and had resumed his work and this was the last they heard from him at home until the telegram was received announcing his death, from cerebra spinal meningitis. It was a sad blow to the relatives and friends. Word was sent back to forward the body to this place, the remains arriving her last Friday. Services were conducted by Rev. Latchaw, assisted by Rev. Gleason and held at the Huston home of Saturday and a large attendance was on hand.

The deceased was 22 years old, a young man of exemplary habits and very best of morals. During his last illness he was tenderly cared for by the Knights of Macawbees, of which order he was a member. He leaves father, mother, five brothers, two sisters to mourn his death.
